File 36

1. The Chilean government gave official warning to the authorities of various Latin American governments that the following Chilean gypsies are considered to be active Communists:

Nicola Llefimo, Nicolich, Basabich, Aristide, California, Aristich, Ichich, Floris, Bagdanovich, Marcovich, Marincovich.
2. A source in El Salvador reports that "Chilean gypsy, Bello Nicolich Bagdanovich" in company with three adults and three children all using Nicolich as surname, obtained passage to Panama on Pan American Airways Flight 701, leaving San Salvador on 4 October 1950. They have reservations for Guayaquil, Ecuador, on PAA Flight 337 on 5 October. All passports have a visa for Lima, Peru.
3. Sources in San Salvador were unable to confirm Communist connections during the stay of these persons in El Salvador.
4. Previous information from Honduras, dated 28 June 1950, reported that the Chilean gypsies listed in the first paragraph would not be allowed to enter Honduras, following an official warning from the Chilean government. Available information indicated that these persons, apparently listed only by last names, had been ordered out of Guatemala and had proceeded by rail to El Salvador.
5. On 9 September 1950, Peruvian consular authorities advised that visas should not be issued to the families of California, Marincovich, Nicolich and Pantich.
6. Previous information received 12 April 1949, stated that one Pedro L. Flores, aka Floris, an American citizen, using Passport No. 51577, born 11 May 1910 in Racine, Wisconsin, had arrived in Panama from Santiago, Chile, on
